

MISSION STATEMENT OF THE HOME:

“To provide comprehensive child care services for displaced children due to death, separation, abuse, abandonment, illness or other unfortunate circumstances. To ensure that while they are in our care they are afforded their rights as outlined in our statement of rights of a child. In addition, that our children feel comfortable and that they develop a sense of self-worth. To offer our children a place where they can feel safe and secure, but moreover, to provide a place that they can call a home.”

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- To provide a safe structured environment for children who have been orphaned, sexually, physically and emotionally abused, neglected or abandoned.
- To maintain and educate
- To prepare the children for adulthood
- To provide assistance to the children upon their departure once they've attained the legal age
- To produce upstanding citizens of The Bahamas
- To alleviate suffering through nurture, care and counseling
- To ensure that the children are socialized so that they are well adjusted and fit into society

FUTURE GOALS

- Funding for additional dormitories
- Transitional housing for older residents
- Securing job opportunities and scholarships for outgoing residents
- Renovate current dormitory facilities
